1. Further pertinent references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.

7. It is noted Applicant's Appeal Brief did not contain a correct copy of all the claims as claims 6 and 7 were not included with the Brief. However, The June 12, 2000 Amendment contains a correct copy of claims 6 and 7. Thus, the 6/10/00 Amendment was used regarding the subject matter of claims 6 and 7.

8. Applicant's Appeal Brief filed October 12, 2004 is convincing with regards to Jorgenson, US 6,452,915. Further, the prior art of record, either alone or in combination, do not disclose, nor suggest, nor provide any motivation, for Applicant's inventive concept, i.e. analyzing a flow for an accounting application comprising: capturing an Internet Protocol (IP) packet from a network segment, determining if the IP packet includes a first protocol type and second protocol type, correlating a flow associated with the IP packet and using the results to provide accounting information, in juxtaposition with the other claim language.
